"Lovely to meet, play board games and chat with people"

LD, Male 55, White: Irish

"Very good here. Nice and peaceful. There is a good crowd here."

EL, Female 66, White: Irish

"I like the company and it gets me out of the house. It is a friendly and happy environment."

MM, Female 84, Black: Caribbean

"It gets you out of the house and if you live alone its a God send because it gets you out of your head"

BN, Male 64, White: British

"Grub is good and the craic is good in Cricklewood. Everyone is very helpful."

PL, Male 69, White: Irish

"Ashford Place are my friends! I get help with benefits, food and I like to come there. While confined to my home they phoned me twice a week. I have friends there and I like the lunches and learning the Irish Language. The food is good- staff always nice to me."

OB, Male 67, Black: African

"Good company, good activities, and the food is good. The staff are very helpful and pleasant."

MH, Male 60, White: Irish

"Ashford Place is very nice. You can meet friends and if you have no friends its no good."

TM, Male 69, White: Irish

"The Dementia Cafe is a lifeline we have been coming for years - they care for my mum and always make a fuss of her. They are a lifeline for me too, caring can be so difficult."

JC, Female 60, Black: Caribbean

"I never had a friend in my adult life and look at me now - I have a best friend and lots of other friends. I enjoyed singing for the first time on stage with the Singing for Wellbeing group"

DL, Female 64, White: British

"The company is good! They help so many people, they do a great job"

KK, Female 78, White: British
